

CONTENTS

Editors	ix
Contributors	xi
1 Introduction	1
2 It's a Social World Susan Bregman	5
What Is Social Media?	5
Who Uses Social Media?	6
How Does Government Use Social Media?	7
How Transportation Organizations Use Social Media	7
Defining the Social Web	10
Other Social Media Platforms	28
Summary	28
References	29
3 Fish Heads and Haiku: Voices from the Field Susan Bregman	31
One Tweet Away: On Site with the Washington State Department of Transportation	32
Keeping It Conversational: On Site with L.A. Metro	43
More Is More: On Site with the Akron-Canton Airport	50
Capital Conversations: On Site with the District Department of Transportation	58
From Zero to Ninety: On Site with the Central Ohio Transit Authority	65
Not Government as Usual: On Site with the Arizona Department of Transportation	73
References	83
4 Using Social Media to Connect with Customers and Community	85
Communicating at the Speed of Light: Using Social Media as a Marketing Tool Matt Raymond and Robin O'Hara	86

A Cantankerous Noise: Social Media as an Advocacy Tool Andrew Austin and Ashley Robbins	103
From the Silicon Hills to the Sea: Using Social Media for Feedback and Community Engagement Jody Feerst Litvak and Jennifer Evans-Cowley	114
From Hurricanes to Carmageddon: Social Media for Real-Time Communications Ned Racine and Susan Bregman	139
References	159
5 Learning from Customers and Community	163
Bringing Customers Back into Transportation: Citizen-Driven Transit Service Innovation via Social Computing Aaron Steinfeld, John Zimmerman, and Anthony Tomasic	164
May We Have a Few Minutes of Your Time? Using Social Media in Transportation Surveys Stacey Bricka, Debbie Spillane, Tina Geiselbrecht, and Thomas Wall	175
Checking the Urban Pulse: Social Media Data Analytics for Transportation Applications Satish V. Ukkusuri, Samiul Hasan, and Xianyuan Zhan	186
References	202
6 Agency Considerations and Policies	209
What's the Worst That Can Happen? Social Media Protocols and Policies Susan Bregman and Sarah M. Kaufman	210
Rules of Engagement: Using Social Media to Turn Critics into Fans Susan Bregman	228
Bridging the Digital Divide: Ensuring Information Equity in Social Media Kari Edison Watkins, Katharine Hunter-Zaworski, and Sarah Windmiller	240
Is Anybody Listening? Measuring Impacts of Social Media Eric Rabe and Susit Dhakal	255
References	274

CONTENTS

7	Tying It All Together	281
	Kari Edison Watkins
	Uses of Social Media	282
	Benefits of Social Media	283
	Entering the Social Space	284
	The Future	289
	Conclusions	291
	Index	293