

WHAT DO WE LEARN IN DISASTERS
—FROM A RESCUER'S POINT OF VIEW

C

ONTENTS

Section I: The Neglected Details in Earthquakes ..... 1

|  |    |
|--|----|
| Question 1: What kind of shake you will feelwhen earthquake hits?.....                               | 2  |
| Question 2: What are the major factors to causecasualties in earthquake?.....                        | 16 |
| Question 3: Buildings made by what kinds of materialsis easy to collapse? .....                      | 34 |
| Question 4: "Triangle of life" or living space?.....   | 44 |
| Question 5: How to find out the load-bearing wall at home?What should I do if I can't find it? ..... | 54 |
| Question 6: Escape or hide? Does time allow? .....   | 60 |
| Question 7: What shall I do if the earthquake hitswhen I am sleeping at night? .....                 | 70 |
| Question 8: Where should the whole family hide at homewhen earthquake comes in the daytime?.....     | 80 |

- Question 9: Is the bathroom really safe to stay in?..... 90
- Question 10: Which are the neglected dangerous places in modern business building, office building and hotel?..... 98

Section II: Simple and Easy-to-learn Self-rescue Skills.... 109

- Attempt 1: Calm — what should I do under ruins?..... 110
- Attempt 2: Bandage — what should I to do if my head, arm or leg is wounded? ..... 114
- Attempt 3: Signal — how to make the SOS easier to be found? ..... 118
- Attempt 4: Crush — the biggest killer in earthquake is "crush syndrome" ..... 122
- Attempt 5: Escape from high floors — what should I do if I am forced to escape from high floors?..... 126