

Index

7

Foreword

María Teresa Muñoz

14

Introduction

Relationships of Contiguity
between Houses and Trees.

How do Houses Change as They Incorporate Trees?.

Trees in the Mythological and Technical Origins of Architecture.
Purpose.

The Five Case Studies.

32

La Casa

Bernard Rudofsky

Compendium of an Architectural Vision.

La Casa Adapted to the Trees and the Surroundings.

Skeletal Architecture.

Walls Breached by Trees.

The Patio: A Room without a Ceiling.

The Porch: Nucleus of the House.

In Search of a New Way of Living.

The Meanings of the Tree.

96

Caesar Cottage

Marcel Breuer

A House "Built in USA".

Sun and Shadow.

Architecture in the Landscape.

Backdrops and Structural Frameworks.

Paul Klee's Influence on the Caesar
Cottage.

Transition from Chaos to Order.

132

Villa La Roche

Le Corbusier and Pierre Jeanneret

Cohabitation between People and Nature.

Three Trees at the Villa La Roche.

A Window, a Tree.

A Big Fenêtre en Longueur for a Small House.

The Enclosure, the Interior and the Porch Facing Lake Geneva.

Two Temples Akin to the Villa Le Lac.

The House is a Box in the Air,

Pierced All Around, Facing Trees.

178

Villa Pepa

Juan Navarro Baldeweg

The Rural Landscape as a Foundation.

Relationships between the House
and the Trees.

The Bridge-Gallery and the Carob
Tree.

The Square and the Cypressess.

Frozen Time.

Complementary Space.

Simultaneous Time.

The House: The Theater for Life.

220

Hexenhaus

Alison and Peter Smithson

Making a Sheltered Enclave.

Axel and Karlchen's Porch.

A Calm Cell in Nature.

The Witch's Broom Room
(Hexenbesenraum).

The Lantern Pavilion.

Bringing Trees into the House.

The Tree as a Formal, Structural and Vital Pattern.

264

Theoretical Contributions

Houses with Trees.

Making a Place with a Tree.

The Vector of Time in Architecture.

Outdoor Domesticity.

295

Afterword

Iñaki Ábalos

On the Subject-House-Tree Relationship.

301

Bibliography

317

Sources of the Images

323

Acknowledgements