Prefaces

Public Space is a Fundamental Human Right ◉ Luisa Bravo 6

Participatory Planning is Key to Truly Transforming Urban Spaces ◉ Horacio Terraza 9

Real-life Laboratories for Urban Development ◉ Anselmo Cani 11

Prologue 14

Challenging Public Spaces: Dhaka, Maputo and Santo Domingo 24

Dhaka, Bangladesh 25

Maputo, Mozambique 32

Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic 39

Addressing the Challenges—from the Local Perspective in Dhaka, Maputo and Santo Domingo ◉ Interview with Sheikh Md. Rezwan, Shila de Morais and Sharina Espinal 47

Resilient Public Spaces—Seven Topics Leading the Way to Integrated Urban Development 64

Planning from Below ◉ Theresa König, Emma Gisinger, Lucia Nogales, Mariana Alegre, Ariela de Oliveira, Roland Krebs 70

Gender-sensitive Planning ◉ Miligros Hurtig, Ana Falu, Viviana Herrera, Ariela de Oliveira, Roland Krebs 82

Transitioning to Inclusive Mobility ◉ Theresa König, Katharina Höftberger, Viviana Herrera, Ariela de Oliveira, Roland Krebs 93

Activating the Local Economy ◉ Emma Gisinger, Marcella Arruda, Viviana Herrera, Ariela de Oliveira, Roland Krebs 104

Climate Change Adaptation ◉ Sunday Abuje, Viviana Herrera, Ariela de Oliveira, Roland Krebs 115

Closing the Housing Gap ◉ Viviana Herrera, Daniela Sanjines, David Kostenwein, Sara Márquez Martín, Gorka Solana, Ariela de Oliveira, Roland Krebs 126

Responsive City Administration ◉ Ariela de Oliveira, Emma Gisinger, Roland Krebs 138

Contextualizing Participatory Urban Design—Learning from Asia, Africa and Latin America

Dhaka Experiences—Academic Partnership in Urban Development ◉ Shayer Ghafur

Transformative Kathmandu—Placemaking as an Innovative Approach to Respond to Urban Dynamics ◉ Niharika Mathema

The Post-conflict City—Rebuilding Through Participation in the Context of Syrian Cities ◉ Ghada Rifai

The Heart of the Community—Public Participation in Parks in Johannesburg ◉ Interview with Ayanda Roji

The Community Architecture Experience Through the Lens of Bangladeshi "Community Architects" ◉ Interview with Suhailey Farzana, Mahmuda Alam, Rubaiya Nasrin, Emerald Upoma Baidya and Khondaker Hasibul Kabir

Planning and the Informal City—Experiences from Cape Town ◉ Marcela Guerrero Casas and Dustin Kramer

Collaborative Placemaking in Times of Political Disruption and Health Crisis—the Case of Khartoum City ◉ Rahma Ali

Children's Urbanism—Bottom-up Approaches from Another Perspective in Mozambique ◉ Interview with Elena Sentieri

Co-Imagining Environmental Urbanism—La Fábrica de Cultura and the Carnival Ecosystem in Colombia ◉ Hubert Klumpner, Diego Ceresuela-Wiesmann, Alejandro Restrepo Montoya

Exploratory Urban Walks—Reflections on Inclusive Public Space on the Move ◉ Shaolin Nicole Saint Hilaire Jong

Negociaciones Urbanas—Urban Production on the Periphery of Bogotá ◉ Interview with Ana López Ortego

MapaNica—Community Mapping toward more Integrated Urban Mobility in Managua, Nicaragua ◉ Interview with Rodrigo Rodríguez

Urban Planning Through the Gender-Lens—Lessons Learned from the City of Vienna ◉ Interview with Eva Kail

Negotiating Spatial Justice—Reflections on Urban Cinema as Civic Space ◉ Marlene Rutzendorfer

Urban Games—Gaming as Innovative Contribution to a More Inclusive Urban Development Process ◉ Eszter Tóth

Dhaka Dreams—Co-creating New Public Spaces for All 248

(Not) Arriving in Dhaka 265

A Special Place of Hope: Shahjahanpur Jheel 266

Public Spaces for the Local Community 274

"Emerging Topics" and the Local Flavor 275

First Encounter with Hopes and Aspirations 280

The Dhaka Urban Design Lab 284

The Role of the Environment in Architecture and Urban Design ◉ Interview with Nahas Khalil 286

We Need to Involve Universities in Everyday Municipal Challenges ◉ Interview with Ismat Hossain 291

Co-creation in Practice 293

The Potentials of Participation and Co-creation in Practice for Dhaka's Urban Development ◉ Interview with Tanya Karim 310

A Dream Comes True—a Visioning-storytelling 312

Transforming the Urban Strategy into Designs 313

Urban Maputo—New Centralities in Twenty Informal Neighborhoods around the Formal City 350

Arriving to Maputo 367

Preparing to Co-create Public Spaces in Twenty Neighborhoods 368

"Emerging Topics" as Starting Points 369

Selection of Strategic Public Spaces to be Transformed into Centralities 372

Tailoring the Toolbox for Dialogue-oriented Urban Design to Maputo 380

The Maputo Urban Lab 391

Approaches to Public Spaces in Maputo ◉ Interview with João Silva 395

Supporting Local Development with Austrian Students ◉ Interview with Sigi Atteneder 402

From Data to Building a Design Strategy 406

Sports in the Public Spaces of Maputo ◉ Interview with Edmundo Roque Ribeiro 411

An Active Mobility Network to Improve Access to Jobs 416

Make it Sustainable for the Future 416

Laboratorio Santo Domingo—Green Urban Corridors and Residual Public Spaces	450
Designing the City of the Eternal Summer	467
The Local Spirit of District 3	467
Important Topics that Emerged during the Research Phase	472
Master Class in Urban Design	480
Academic Participation in the Laboratorio Santo Domingo ◉ Interview with Victoria De Láncer	482
How Easy is it to Transfer Knowledge? ◉ Interview with Sina del Rosario and Winston von Engel	485
Co-Creating a New Urban Avenue in Barcelona Metropoltian Area ◉ Interview with Judith Recio and Anna Majoral	489
Now, the Laboratorio Santo Domingo May Start	493
The Dominican Toolbox of Design	500
A New Urban Avenue and Inclusive Green Corridor	514
New Centralities as Game Changers	515
Transform Residual Public Spaces into New Parks	515
Co-creative Design Toolbox	550
Introduction to Participatory Urban Design	551
Participatory Planning Process	554
Planning a Participatory Session	557
Guiding Questions for Each Phase	560
Checklist for Planning a Participatory Session	562
Combining and Adapting Tools	564
How to Use the Toolbox: A Guide	568
Tools for Local Assessment and Scoping	57
Tools for Vision and Goals	587
Tools for Action Planning	604
Tools for Feedback and Evaluation	620
Epilogue	636
Interview with Mohammad Sirajul Islam, Nadia Sultanegy and Jesús D'Alessandro	637
About the Editors	64
Contributors to this Book	64
Project Teams	65
Imprint	65